

1.) I think that Anne would like the fact that people have read her diary. The reason for this is because she shared what she thought. I also think that she would like how the world knew her story.

2.) I think what pushed Mr. Frank into publishing the diary is that it was the only thing left that could remind him of Anne after her death. I know he was very proud of her also.

Anne: Hello, Father!

Mr. Frank: Hello, Anelle. How are you today?

Anne: I'm doing just wonderful. And you?

Mr. Frank: It has been wonderful as well.

Anne: That's good to hear. I saw that you published my diary. I thought it was very generous of you, but I have to ask. Why would you want to publish it?

Mr. Frank: Anne, I think your diary is very unique. You have a way of thinking that nobody can explain. You understand everything and I have always admired you for that. I was so proud, I had to let the world know!

Anne: Oh I see why you had my diary published. You thought that my diary was truly magnificent. Oh I wish Margot, Mother, Mrs. Van Daan, Mr. Van Daan, Dussel, and Peter were here to see this!

Mr. Frank: Yes, that would be nice. Put all of the fighting and hatred that occurred aside and the time we had spent together was irreplaceable.

Anne: I agree that we all formed an incredibly tight bond that will never be broken even if something major happens.

Mr. Frank: It's a shame they all had to go so soon, but everything happens for a reason.

Anne: In spite of everything, I still believe that people are really good at heart.

Anne: Anyways, I appreciate all you have done for me and I truly look up to you. I love you, Father.

Mr. Frank: I love you, Anelle.
